West Midlands based commercial refurbishment specialist Finemark Contracts were chosen to refurbish an unused area of a commercial factory for one of the industries leading fencing manufacturer Zaun Fencing.

Zaun won a multi-million pound joint contract to design, manufacture and supply the fencing that surrounds the site of the world renowned sporting event visiting London in the coming years. As part of their ongoing contractual meetings a site visit to Zaun's manufacturing facility in Wolverhampton which would coincide with a project meeting.

Finemark were already bidding for the contract to refurbish an area of the factory into a state of the art conference and board room, when the meeting was brought forward, the project was about to be put on hold as it would now be unachievable prior to the meeting.

Paul Painter, co-founder of Zaun said, "I was calling Finemark to give them the bad news, or so I thought. After speaking to Neil Woodland, Contracts Manager at Finemark, he assured me he would deliver the project within 2 weeks to ensure our facility would be ready for our very important site visit."

"The project was originally planned on a 4 week delivery program, because of our excellent working relationships with our specialist partners; we were able to call in some favors to ensure the project was delivered as originally planned, to exactly the same programmed time.

Fast Track Achievements in the Board Room

Our specialist contractors worked days, evenings and weekends to deliver the project in time. In fact our teams were working on site within 24hrs of the contract being awarded,” claims Neil.

The project works included supply and installation of:

- Minor Building Works
- Mechanical & Electrical
- Decorating & Air Conditioning
- Specialist Wood Paneling & Furniture
- IT, Audio Visual

Paul from Zaun stated, “Initially we told Neil what we wanted and they came up with some fantastic computer generated images, then we thought we had to delay it due to the meeting times being brought forward, Neil than offered us the unthinkable, and what he delivered was nothing short of amazing. We are so pleased that we found Finemark in time, they really are a ‘can do’ company, we’d happily recommend them and we will certainly use them again when we refurbish the offices.”

“It was imperative on this project that we pulled out all the stops, to deliver on time first time, there could be no over run, any unforeseen issues had to managed-in there and then and delivered” adds Neil.

Finemark Contracts are specialist in commercial and office refurbishments and can deliver the full services including mezzanine floors, building works, partitioning and ceilings including all mechanical and electrical works to prepare the site for our interior finishing teams to deliver decorating, furniture, audio-visuals, and flooring.
